HAYMAN COMMISSIONED 2ND LIEUTENANT

CHARLESTON -- Eastern Illinois University graduate Dawn Hayman, daughter of Phillip and Amelia Hayman of Chicago, was recently commissioned as a 2nd Lt. in the United States Army. She's been assigned active duty in the United States Army Transportation Corp.

To be commissioned, a student must serve two years as a member of the Reserve Officers Training Corps. Students involved with ROTC at Eastern learn basic military science and practice soldiering skills and army leadership.

A 1988 graduate of Queen of Peace High School in Burbank, Hayman earned her degree in elementary education from Eastern.

Eastern, located in Charleston, is a public, residential university that places priority on teaching excellence. More than 11,000 students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs in both on- and off-campus sites. University faculty are involved in a wide range of research and public activities.
